Alexander, 6th regiment United States infantry, a witness on the part of Colonel Brant, duly sworn, answers: Question by Colonel Brant. Were you stationed at Jefferson barracks, Missouri, in 1837? If so, in what capacity? Answer. I was there at that time, as aid-de-camp to Brigadier General Atkinson. Question by Colonel Brant. Had you frequent opportunities of seeing the horses purchased by Lieutenant Colonel Brant for the service of the 2d regiment of dragoons, during that year?, If so, state them. Answer. I believe I saw all the horses purchased that year for the 2d regiment of dragoons, both at the barracks and at St. Louis. Question by Colonel Brant. Were you acquainted with the general condition of the horses purchased for the service of the 2d regiment of dragoons, both before and after they were turned over to the officers of that regiment? If so, under what particular circumstances did you become so. and what was it? Answer. I was acquainted particularly with the condition of those horses. I was told by Colonel Twiggs, of the 2d regiment of dragoons, that, if I would select any horse from that regiment, he would take him, refunding his cost to the Government, and let me have him for the same. I wanted him for the public service in my capacity as aid de-camp. I examined the horses particularly on that account. They were generally in very fine condition. Question by...
