Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman. It is a pleasure for me to have the opportunity to appear before this committee and before you, Mr. Chairman, on the question of voter registration. Your opening statement has outlined clearly and compellingly the need for legislation in this area. I want to commend you, Mr. Chairman, for the leadership you have provided in what is one of the most important matters we will be facing in this Congress, a matter basic to all the other rights of the American people, the right to vote. I want to acknowledge, at the outset of the hearings, the distinguished member of this committee, the Senator from Alaska, Senator Stevens who is a cosponsor of the legislation I have introduced. I am also pleased to recognize the Honorable H. A. Boucher, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Alaska. Alaska, as one of the newest States, has provided enormously imaginative leadership in the whole area of voter registration. If the country can follow the example of Alaska, many of the problems we are facing can be eliminated. Alaska was one of the first States to recognize the importance of extending the right to vote to young people below the age of 21. And this past year, Alaska carried out one of the most aggressive voter registration programs for high school students in the country. In addition, I understand that the State...
