Excerpt: .sum of three dollars and thirty cents, and is a sufficient averment of the manner of making the assessment of the property. In such cases it is not necessary to aver the several statutory steps required to create a legal and valid assessment. The facts of such an assessment are sufficiently removed in their nature from mere conclusions of law to admit of their being averred without specifying what acts were done, or by what officer. 5. The taxes involved in this suit are for the year 1890. After they were levied and assessed the act of 1891 (Chapter 4039, laws of Florida) was enacted. Section 2 of this act provides that the assessments and levies of taxes as made and entered upon the several assessment rolls of said city of Jacksonville for the years 1887, 1888, 1889 and 1890, severally, are hereby legalized and...
