Balboa Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Let your horizons expand as you and your friends spend time enjoying the art of conversation and the nurturing of ideas. Amadeus begins the conversation as a good host should--by recommending wine, cheese, and a song to accompany the evening s short vignette on an irreverent and humorous look at a truth of life. Each story contains both wit and a profound analogy that touches the human condition in way that engages the heart and mind. The fun really begins after each chapter, because that is the time to challenge Amadeus s viewpoint with your own understanding of the moral of each story. Very soon new ideas emerge, and the excitement of new thoughts swirls to the beat of an energized dialogue and a higher plateau of vision. I love it! Love and light. - Anke Otto-Wolf, author of Give Your Soul a Gift.
