Outskirts Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This book is dedicated to all persons who have felt inferior, unwanted, unimportant, insignificant, rejected, scorned or ostracized by the insensitive, actions, words or attitudes emanating from the super-spiritual members of our various local churches. How To Be Spiritual Without Being Spooky is written with you, your children and your church community in mind. It provides biblical insights and real-to-life illustrations, geared to facilitate your hearing of God's voice more clearly in this busy and confused generation. It also encourages those who are bound by religious traditions; rites, rituals and routines . to think outside the box and enter a genuine personal relationship with the Living God that will carry them into an unending spiritual adventure, far exceeding their local-church and denominational experiences. Too many sincere human beings are being pressured into believing that their spirituality must either be seen on their unpleasant faces, worn on their unattractive clothing, articulated by their philosophical tongues, or demonstrated through sensuous, acrobatic gyrations and mystical church rituals. How To Be Spiritual Without Being Spooky, therefore, seeks to express some of the countless, deep rooted frustrations which confront those sincere individuals who are striving to live for Jesus Christ but who are continuously being buffeted, harassed, discouraged and disillusioned by the unreasonable expectations and inflexible religious traditions of misguided church people. Whether we are high-spirited Pentecostals who are ecstatically jumping over church benches, zealous Bible-trumping Evangelicals, pious Episcopalians (Anglicans) going through the monotonous Prayer Book routines or effervescent, name it and claim it Charismatics -- in search of prosperity, popularity and power, we must all be willing to grapple with the following inescapable concern: How To Be Spiritual Without Being...
