Not illustrated. 1908 Excerpt: .with requisite explication of details, outlined a policy to which people and press responded with enthusiasm. The commission began active work on the Mississippi in May, followed by inspection trips through the Great Lakes and down the Mississippi and lower Missouri in September and October. They were accompanied by the president from Keokuk to Memphis in what was designed as a simple inspection yet proved to be at once the most notable pageant in the history of the Mississippi Valley and the most impressive demonstration any president ever saw--for in addition to the fact of his presidency, Theodore Roosevelt was as a Moses leading the people from an oppressed and degraded state of commerce in which they found themselves beleaguered, as did their forebears a century and a quarter before. Nearly all the water craft of the river system were assembled; railways abandoned schedules and stopped...
