Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Every Hill and Mountain book 3 in the history mystery trilogy An old house + A new computer program = The travel opportunity of a lifetime. .to another century. The People Since Beautiful Houses worked so well for the Old Dears family tree project, Abby s college roommate Kate hopes the computer program will help her find out more about her ancestor Ned Greenfield. Abby and John reluctantly agree to help Kate, but only on the condition that she and her fiance Ryan promise to keep the program a secret, because if the government ever discovered they possessed a computer program that allows you to rewind and fast forward the lives of people it would surely want to get its hands on it. The two couples take a trip to the tiny town of Equality, set in the hills of southern Illinois and the breath-taking Shawnee National Forest. According to Kate s research, Ned Greenfield was born there at a place called Hickory Hill. The mayor, police chief, and townspeople are hospitable and helpful-until the topic of Hickory Hill comes up. Then they are determined to keep them away. Eventually they find Hickory Hill on their own-both the mansion and the lonely hill it sits upon. The House Built in 1834, Hickory Hill stands sentinel over Half Moon Salt Mine where the original owner John Granger accumulated his blood-tainted fortune with the use of slave labor. In the free state of Illinois-the Land of Lincoln. Abby and her friends meet Miss Granger, Hickory Hill s current eccentric owner, and they eventually get the chance to run Beautiful Houses there. Their shocking discovery on the third floor concerning Kate...
