

An Ancient Tale New Told - Volume 1: The Stories of Shakespeare - Tragedies (Paperback)

By John Missall

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 254 x 178 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The stories told in the plays of William Shakespeare are among the most beloved in all literature. In this unique three-volume set, award-winning author and historian John Missall retells each play in modern prose while retaining Shakespeare's original language for the characters' conversations. The stories closely follow the action of the plays, retaining the Act/Scene structure of the originals. By using little added embellishment and minimal paraphrasing, the author allows the reader to easily understand these timeless dramatic works and appreciate Shakespeare's powerful yet beautiful wording. Volume I: The Tragedies includes the most familiar works, such as Hamlet, MacBeth, and Romeo Juliet, plus the lesser-known plays, such as Coriolanus, Troilus Cressida, and Timon of Athens. Also included is The Merchant of Venice. Although normally classified as a comedy, it is often viewed today as the Tragedy of Shylock. Illustrated with numerous Shakespeare-inspired works of art, An Ancient Tale New Told is the perfect tool for those who would like to become familiar with the greatest works in the English language. From the text: Hamlet enters the...
