TESTIMONY OF PICKERING AND HULL MONTHLY MEETING, RESPECTING JOHN WILHELM ROWNTREE, A MINISTER, DECEASED. We deem it right to bear witness to the power of Divine grace in a life just taken from us. John Wilhelm Rowntree was bom at York on the 4th of Ninth Month, 1868, and died in the New York Hospital on the 9th of Third Month, 1905. His school life was passed at the Friends Schools at York and Scarborough. He entered with keenness and success into business life. He had much enjoyment in art and literature. His capacity for detail in no way impaired his power and breadth of thought. A limitation of hearing hardly affected his manhood s vigour, and the thought, How good is man s life, the mere living, was given to him abundantly. His marriage with Constance M. Naish brought him a home life of exceeding happiness. With these gifts he had great strivings after reality, and his search for truth led him at the outset through depths of doubt and difficulty. When the light of Christ came home to his understanding, and grew there with increasing clearness, he yielded himself with a whole-hearted obedience to the heavenly vision. The love of Christ became the law of his life. This vision followed immediately upon the knowledge that a partial loss of sight which he was already suffering would probably develop into blindness, with other ills in its train. Instead of retreating before infirmity,...
