

In My Father's House are Many Mansions: Family and Community in Edgefield, South Carolina (Paperback)

By Orville Vernon Burton

The University of North Carolina Press, United States, 1987. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 1st New edition. 229 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Burton traces the evolution of Edgefield County from the antebellum period through Reconstruction and beyond. From amassed information on every household in this large rural community, he tests the many generalizations about southern black and white families of this period and finds that they were strikingly similar. Wealth, rather than race or class, was the main factor that influenced family structure, and the matriarchal family was but a myth.

Reviews

This is an amazing book that I actually have actually read through. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. You will not truly feel monotony at anytime of the time (that's what catalogs are for concerning should you ask me).
