All that we are accustomed to include in our terms, Home and Foreign Missions, is included in the word evangelism. When Christ said, Go ye into all the world and preach, He meant all that is intended in the word evangelism. The greatest need of this day is a passion for souls, a love for incessant Christian work, and a knowledge of how to do personal work. Drummond said we should buttonhole men to Christ. Christ sent His disciples out two by two. The Holy Spirit sends each Christian out with instructions to make a disciple for Christ.
