

1000 Black Umbrellas (Paperback)

By Daniel McGinn

Write Bloody Publishing, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 212 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Daniel McGinn is a grandfather who began writing poems when he was a child. This collection is written in a simple, yet often surreal, style. These works are rooted in the concerns of everyday life: birth and death, marriage and children, work and leisure, sickness and health, hopelessness and redemption and even the weather. He has a quiet voice. These poems are best read in the rain. I am a long-time admirer of McGinn's work, but this book is a real eye-opener. I have never known him-or anyone else-to take such chances. There are treasures here. And there is absolute nakedness, and the healing power of love. I would be proud to see my name somewhere on this book. -Jack McCarthy, Author of Say Goodnight, Grace Notes: New and Corrected Poems . When I first met Daniel McGinn, outside a coffeehouse where I was hosting an open reading, I little imagined this shy, unassuming man would turn out to be one of the most talented poets I would ever meet. It has been with excitement, and no small bit...
