Temple was a great personality who loomed large, but he never wished to stand apart as a superior being; he regarded himself simply as one set to do his duty, wherever it called him, in the life of his day; he came to Rugby, Rugby did not come to him. He exercised great influence upon the School, and it was different in many ways for having known him, but it was still the same Rugby, Rugby of the past and of the future. I. So first let me say something of Rugby as he found it.
